BRITISH INDIA

THE territory of British India, formerly administered by the Honourable East India Company, came directly under the authority of the Crown in 1858, and in 1877 Her late Majesty Queen Victoria assumed the title of Empress of India, and since that date the King of Great Britain and Ireland has the additional title of Emperor of India.

The area under British administration, including Burmah, is 1,097,900 square miles. To this has to be added an area of 712,230 square miles belonging to the feudatory States. The total population according to the census of 1911 was 315,001,099.

Viceroy and Governor-General, Right Hon. Lord Hardinge of Penshurst, P.C., G.M.S.I., G.M.I.E., G.C.B., G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., I.S.O. Delhi.

Governors—Bombay, Lord Willingdon, G.C.I.E.; Madras, Lord Pentland, P.C., G.C.I.E.; Bengal (Calcutta), Lord Carmichael, G.C.I.E., K.C.M.G.

Lieut.-Governors—Burma (Rangoon and Mandalay), Sir Harvey Adamson, K.C.S.I.; Behar and Orissa, Sir Charles Stuart Bayley, K.C.S.I., I.S.O.; United Provinces of Agra and Oudh (Naini Tal, Lucknow and Allahabad), Sir James S. Meston K.C.S.I.; Punjab (Lahore), Sir Michael Francis O'Dwyer, K.C.S.I.

India has a very large trade with China, Persia, Arabia, Ceylon, the Straits, Australia and other countries, and the trade with America is still mainly carried on in vessels which go round the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn; but of that between India and Europe, the great bulk passes through the Suez Canal.

The principal exports consist of grain, raw cotton, raw hides, jute, manufactures of jute, indigo, shellac, leather, opium, rape and linseed, rice, tea, coffee and wool; the chief imports are cotton yarn, manufactured cotton goods, woollen goods, copper, drugs, iron (wrought and unwrought), machinery, railway material, salt, sugar, silk manufactures &c. The cotton weaving and spinning industry of British India is of considerable importance, there being, in 1912-13, 255 cotton mills engaged, with 6,483,978 spindles and 90,973 looms, the production being 688,421,750 lbs. of yarn and 285,467,804 lbs. of woven goods. The trade in gunny bags has developed to a remarkable extent. The number of mills engaged in the jute industry during 1911-12 was 59 with 32,900 looms and 677,500 spindles, employing 201,300 persons.

MINERAL PRODUCTION, 1912.—The principal minerals produced were as follows: Coal, 14,706,339 tons, valued at £3,310,365; gold, 590,555 ozs. valued at £2,271,806; petroleum, 249 083,518 gallons, valued at £975,278; salt, 1,454,602 tons, valued at £509,824; manganese ore, 637,444 tons, valued at £884,404; mica, 43,835 cwts. valued at £97,286; saltpetre, 14,798 cwts. valued at £217,035; lead and lead ore, 25 739 tons, valued at £153 069; tungsten ore, 1,672 tons, valued at £115,200.

TEA.—The area and production of tea in the various provinces of India during 1911 were as follows:—
